

MEHER BABA ASSOCIATION BOOK LIST 2018

I Have Come Not To Teach, But To Awaken
Meher Baba

1. MEHER BABA'S OWN WORDS

BEAMS FROM MEHER BABA ON THE SPIRITUAL PANORAMA

by Meher Baba 88pp HB £6.50 (3)

Thirteen key essays detailing the inner workings of the spiritual journey, piercing through intellectual formulae to direct and joyful perception of Divine Truth.

DISCOURSES

by Meher Baba 452pp - PB £17.50 (6)

An indispensable work, covering all aspects of spiritual life, from the most sublime to the most practical. For the searching intellect, they provide clear answers with unassuming simplicity; for the hungry heart, deep emotional nourishment; so all embracing, they could come only from the very source of truth and love. Including discourses on discipleship, reincarnation, karma, the termination of the ego, meditation, sex and marriage, love, violence and non-violence, and much more. The best possible companion for anyone seeking spiritual direction.

Four Volume DISCOURSES

(revised sixth edition, published 2008) £18.50 (6)

This version is the same as the turquoise, three volume set which was published during Meher Baba's lifetime, edited by his explicit directive and sealed with his personal approval. This edition reproduces that 1967 text with a few small alterations, mostly in spelling and capitalization. It also incorporates (in a new fourth volume) certain new supplemental materials meant for readers who would like to study the history and language of the Discourses in greater depth.

THE EVERYTHING AND THE NOTHING

by Meher Baba 115pp PB £6.50 (3)

This is a collection of beautiful short discourses dictated to his disciples during the late 50s and early sixties, they are both powerful and accessible. As Francis Brabazon says in his introduction. They constitute a preparation for both the mind and the heart to receive that One Word of the Truth, when He speaks it. They carry the essence of Baba's insights from the period, with passages on, Stages of Love, At the Junction of Reality and Illusion, Toys in the Divine Game.

GOD SPEAKS

by Meher Baba 374pp HB £20.50 (6)

A monumental work - Meher Baba's major and definitive statement about the workings and purpose of creation. Following the growth of consciousness in which God comes to know Himself, it moves through all stages of material and spiritual evolution, detailing the progressive path from inanimate to animal and human form, and describing the intricate process of reincarnation. It explains exactly the inward journey of the soul as it moves towards conscious reunion with the Oversoul of its origin, and details experiences of the seven planes of consciousness, functions of the spiritual hierarchy and the trio-nature of God. Unprecedented in its scope, God Speaks offers the fullest and most authoritative explanation of the spiritual mechanics of the universe yet in print.

INFINITE INTELLIGENCE (NOT IN STOCK)

It is believed that these were the notes taken by Baba's disciples from his silent dictation; possibly with chalk on slate 80 years ago. Price £72.00 (including postage)

It totals 776 pages, includes 28 full colour figures and numerous historical photos and scans. The text is edited from a manuscript in the archives department of the Avatar Meher Baba Trust, consisting of two unsigned hand written notebooks that probably date from the mid-1920s. Editor Bhau Kalchuri.

LIFE AT ITS BEST

by Meher Baba 73pp HB £5.50 (3)

Short messages taken from Baba's 1956 tour of the United States, in a form suitable for daily readings. Deathless Living, The Law of Karma, The Avatar's Advent and others, their main theme is the need to break through our narrow bindings and live a full, free spiritual existence that meets the challenges of everyday life.

MEHER BABA'S EARLY MESSAGES TO THE WEST

by Ward Parks 474 pp PB price £23.00 (6)

This meticulously produced volume gathers together all these amazing words of Meher Baba from that period of His frequent visit to the West, so eloquent and moving. 'Questions and Answers' and 'Sayings' were two booklets published by the Circle Editorial Group in London in the 1930s, they are both included in this book. It also contains messages that Baba gave whilst in England and USA and a large selection of material relating to the film that Baba spent several years planning and gathering suitable people for, scripts were written etc.

NARROW LANE

Compiled by Bill Le Page 151pp PB £4.50 (3)

Excerpts from the Discourses on different themes including: the search for God and the mind & heart.

THE PATH OF LOVE

by Meher Baba 129pp PB £8.50 (4)

A fine sample of Baba's teachings, taken from The Awakener Magazine.

THE SILENT MASTER, MEHER BABA

Edited by Irwin Luck 48pp PB £5.40 (6)

Meher Baba called this compilation of the most significant events and statements of His life 'a fine piece of art... a Documentary on the "Ancient One."' Combining photos and quotations it was, He said, 'beautifully done... a treasure for the archives.'

THE SILENT TEACHINGS OF MEHER BABA

Compiled and edited by Naosherwan Anzar 156 pp. Price £7.00 (5)

This is a compendium of discourses given by Meher Baba in the early thirties, and part of the book is devoted to conversations with Baba during his travels in Europe at the same period. In these discourses Meher Baba shows the way towards direct work on oneself, points out the pitfalls on the spiritual path and provides means for a better understanding of the inner conditions that are indispensable on the pathway to God-realization.

SPARKS OF THE TRUTH, from dissertations of MEHER BABA

by Dr C.D.Deshmukh 96pp PB £2.75 (2)

Taken from dissertations given by Baba, prior to 1949. This book is based on notes taken by two disciples as the messages were given. i) Hints to the aspirant on the spiritual path.

ii) A larger, more abstract discussion about the soul.

THE TIFFIN LECTURES of Meher Baba - published 2017

More than twenty years in the making, this is a record of dictations given by Meher Baba from April 1926 until August 1927. This beautiful hardcover edition includes more than sixty photographs, as well as introductory anecdotes giving context to each lecture. More than thirty full-colour illustrations based on diagrams given by Baba are accompanied by reproductions of the original diagrams from the manuscript. 690 pp. Price £56.00 plus postage. 2. BIOGRAPHIES AND CHRONICLES

THE BELOVED: THE LIFE AND WORK OF MEHER BABA

by Naosherwan Anzar 158pp PB price £10.50 (6)

An ever-popular pictorial biography, with 165 photos, that offers a beautiful visual and verbal record of Meher Baba's life. From his early childhood in Poona, contacts with masters and drawing together of disciples, through half a century of intense work, travels and seclusion to his final sahavas. A 34 page appendix includes Baba's own messages: The Highest of the High, The One and Only Reality and The Meaning of Love.

MEHERA-MEHER - A Divine Romance

by David Fenster 1700pp PB New Edition 2013 price is £46.00 plus (9) With more photos etc.

The three volume set draws deeply from Mehera's first hand narrative gathered from over 200 hours of tape recordings made by the author, between 1974 and 1982. To this he painstakingly researched and added other historical material from Mehera and those close to her to create an epic, biography of Avatar Meher Baba's foremost woman disciple. (with many unpublished photographs)

"This is the story of Baba's personal life, everything that is not in Lord Meher, which is more the story of Baba's public life and statements and the way he acted towards the men mandali. It made me see Baba in a way I never had before and could not have without this story. It has meant more to me than all the other Baba books I have ever read." - Julie Ross

"What I found completely fascinating was the incredibly vivid picture it painted of what life was like, not just for Mehera, but for all the women mandali. It made the complex interpersonal dynamics of the women come alive in a way which, for the first time, gave me a real feel for what it must have been like to live that life." - Steve Klein

EIGHTY-TWO FAMILY LETTERS MEHER BABA

by Mani (Manija Sheriar Irani) 376pp PB £8.50 (6)

Written by Mani, Baba's sister and close disciple. These letters were originally intended to keep Western lovers in close contact with Baba's activities between 1956 and 1969. Full of lively and revealing detail, they chronicle day-to-day life around Baba and give a fascinating intimate portrait of life at close quarters to the Avatar.

GLIMPSES OF THE GOD-MAN, MEHER BABA - VOL.I

GLIMPSES OF THE GOD-MAN, MEHER BABA - VOL.V

by Bal Natu 325pp PB £6.00 (5)

Even more detailed than before, this volume homes in on nine weeks early in 1954, when Baba travelled through Hamirpur and Andhra, and gives an eye-witness account of the Avatar's presence and dealings with thousands of ardent followers.

GLIMPSES OF THE GOD-MAN, MEHER BABA - VOL VI

by Bal Natu 264pp PB £7.00 (6)

Takes in from March 1954 to April 1955, including the large gathering in September '54 known as "The Three Incredible Weeks". At the end of this gathering Meher Baba gave His Final Declaration and a short time later stopped using the alphabet board to communicate.

THE GODMAN

by Charles B. Purdom 45pp HB £10.50 (6)

An old favourite, this remains one of the most authoritative and well-documented biographies of Meher Baba, carefully written by an English scholar who had access to disciples' diaries and personal accounts. Purdom brings intelligence, lucid thought and deep-felt conviction of Baba's divinity to his book, which takes us up to 1962.

HAZRAT BABAJAN

Published in India 70pp PB £1.50 (2)

A glimpse into the life and work of one of the Perfect Masters who made Meher Baba realise His divinity.

MEHER BABA'S NEW LIFE (NOT IN STOCK)

by Bhau Kalchuri. 726Pp HB. £24.00. (6). This is a new and comprehensive look at one of the most significant periods of Meher Baba's work; no doubt taken from contemporary writings, painstakingly woven into a fascinating epic, with hundreds of photos, many previously unpublished. I have not read it yet but two people I know say they could not put it down. (not always available in UK)

MUCH SILENCE

by Tom and Dorothy Hopkinson 230pp HB £8.00 (6)

A finely written biography: one of the most accessible accounts, introducing Baba's life and work to a Western audience, and reading His incarnation as ancient truths manifesting in contemporary form.

STAY WITH GOD

by Francis Brabazon 168pp PB £12.00 (6)

An epic narrative poem, lyrical & metaphysical, tells Baba's life story, denounces a secular world and sings the praise of God.

Baba was very pleased and said it was a very important book.

THE WAYFARERS: MEHER BABA WITH THE GOD-INTOXICATED

by William Donkin 576pp HB £21.60 (6)

First published in 1948 - corrected and approved by Baba Himself - this is a chronicle of Baba's work with the God-intoxicated, during the 1930s and 1940s, in all parts of the Indian sub-continent. It's a book as unique as the souls whose extraordinary experience it depicts: masts, so spiritually advanced in their yearning for God that they have lost touch with the ordinary world. Baba personally sought out these advanced souls in order to make contact with them on a higher level of consciousness for those meetings were conducted in silence.

The biography of Charles Purdom, born in 1883. Purdom was a pioneer in many respects, he was influential in the building of the first two Garden cities, Letchworth and Welwyn Garden City. He was also a spiritual seeker and had many talents in literature, theatre and philosophy. In 1930 he was editor of the Everyman magazine that carried advertisements for the East Challacombe retreat, set up by Meredith Star at the request of Meher Baba. It was instrumental in attracting many of the early English Baba followers. In 1931 Charles aged 47 met Meher Baba in Devon. He wrote two biographies of Baba, first The Perfect Master in 1937 and later a more complete biography The Godman in 1967. He was on the committee of the original UK Meher Baba group with Will and Mary Backet, Delia De Leon, Fred Marks, Douglas and Molly Eve etc.

DONKIN'S DIARIES by Dr. William Donkin 334 pp PB price £21.75 (6)

Produced in 2011 by Sheriar Press with many interesting photographs, some not previously published, also several maps. The four volumes of Donkin's journals are printed, with his spelling etc., each followed by extensive notes prepared by Sarah McNeill giving wonderful details of people, places, historical events etc, which make very interesting reading in themselves. She has also included portrait biographies of many of the characters mentioned by Donkin. The diaries themselves are truly fascinating, he gives a unique perspective of life with Baba and the other members of the ashram from 1939 – 1945. He records many things that Baba said. Especially interesting are the references that Baba makes on the progress of the second world war, as it happens. Sarah and several other U.K. Baba followers spent time in India doing research. The originals are in the Archives at Meherabad, and may be examined by appointment.

DREAMING OF THE BELOVED (NOT AVAILABLE)

GOD BROTHER, STORIES FROM MY CHILDHOOD WITH MEHER BABA

by Mani Irani 160pp PB £7.00 (5)

Mani has been telling stories about her brother to His lovers from both East and West for over 25 years. She has finally put down on paper 35 of these little gems. Charming and amusing they give an insight into Baba's ways of working even with his little sister who adored Him. This book is beautifully illustrated with photos and paintings by Wodin.

GROWING UP WITH GOD

by Sheela Kalchuri Fenster 800 pp HB with 146 photographic images £27.00 (6)

Sheela's father Bhau Kalchuri joined Meher Baba as one of the mandali in 1953. His family lived nearby. Sheela's first person account paints a vivid, intimate picture of life near Meher Baba from the perspective of a child and teenager. Because she was a child she was able to move freely amongst the men and women; she struck up a friendship with Dr Donkin and Baba allowed her to ask him questions which no one else would have contemplated. It is a book of refreshing innocence and spontaneity.

HE GIVES THE OCEAN

by Najoo Savak Kotwal - 396 pp. Price £12.00 (6)

The story of the Savak Kotwal family depicts in a very touching way the true human side of the God-Man in all His perfection. Savak and his wife Nergiz surrendered totally to Baba, who transformed their worldly lives into lives well lived for God. Some of the words Beloved Baba said to them are worth deep consideration. Najoo was one of a few Baba lovers who spent much of her childhood growing up at Meherabad along with her sister Hilla. Her recollections of those early days in the ashram (from 1940) give a unique and intimate perspective of life with the God-Man.

HOW A MASTER WORKS

by Ivy Oneita Duce 768pp HB £13.50 (6)

Marvelously rich and insightful. A leader and teacher of Sufism uses her own gripping autobiography to examine the working methods of her Master, Meher Baba, and share secrets of spiritual development. There is a supplement filled with anecdotes and understanding. Entertaining, subtle and profound.

INNER TRAVEL TO SACRED PLACES

By Robert Dreyfuss 216 pp PB price £15.50 (5)

In 1965 Robert flew to London and then set out on a two-and-a-half month overland journey to India to attend a gathering called by his master, Meher Baba. However, on arrival, he discovered that the meeting was cancelled - three days after he had left on his trip. The account of how he persisted against all odds to meet his Beloved is part of Robert's inspiring life story.

IT SO HAPPENED

THE REAL TREASURE - VOLUMES ONE, TWO, THREE, FOUR & FIVE

by Rustom Falahati 116 pages Price for Vols One - Three £3.50 (3) Vols. Four & Five £4.50 (4)

Rustom a professional marine engineer, quit his job for the opportunity to live and work with Avatar Meher Baba's mandali, which he did for nearly 11 years from 1989 to 2000. When asked, what did he learn by this, he would quote the Mandali and say "Work is only the excuse that Baba uses to work upon your ego. That is the real work". Rustom was closely involved in the battle to close the chemical works near Meherazad.

Volume Two Is about Rustom's experiences when he left Meherazad and the struggle he has had with illness and how he learned to accept. it. This is a very powerful book.

Volume 3 and 4 recall numerous quotations and episodes related by the Mandali.

by Bal Natu 142pp PB £7.50 (5)

In a deeply heartfelt and thought provoking meditation on the unique significance of Meher Baba's Samadhi (Tomb) in India, Bal Natu shares his personal reflections and convictions on its special role in the Avatar's advent. A gem of a book from Bal's perceptive hand.

SEEKERS OF TRUTH

by Amiya Kumar Hazra. 218 pp paperback price £19.50 plus (5)

This is a collection of stories from older Indian Baba Lovers whose stories have never been told before. With the assistance of Keith Gunn, Dr. Hazra has collected and edited these stories for us. And they are wonderfully detailed and intimate descriptions of the lives of these men and women; how they hear of Him, how they first meet Him and many details of their lives. It is fascinating to hear how people who met Baba never forget anything about that experience, I guess they go on and on telling their stories, so they are strongly embedded in the memory. Dr Hazra spent many years on collecting these stories.

SEARCH FOR THE TRUTH, My Life with Meher Baba

by Joyce Bird 132 pp PB £4.50 (3)

Joyce was an English lady who followed Meher Baba for over 60 years. She wrote this book in her eighties and nineties. She was still full of love for Baba even though she was blind and nearly deaf. She wanted to record and share her trials and experiences on the Path.

SLAVE OF LOVE

Biography of Dr. William Donkin by Bob Mossman, PB, 373 pp. Price £20.75 p&p £2.80. (6) Published 2012, a very meticulously researched book about the young English doctor who gave up all prospects of a brilliant career in Britain to follow his heart to India and devote his life to serving Meher Baba. He was one of the New Life Companions and remained beside Baba until the end. Baba entrusted him with recording His work with the "masts" in The Wayfarers, published in 1948. Bob, who is a journalist has collected much information recorded by various members of Baba's mandali and other followers and builds a picture of this complex man. Also includes details of his family background that he left behind and rare photos complete the picture.

SPREAD MY LOVE

by Charmian Knowles (Duce) – price £12.70 (6)

The love and humanity of Charmian and those around her in the West and in India just shines out – and her thoughts and comments are a rich source of help to us in understanding some of what is happening to people in terms of sankaric patterns. Her writings about Baba and Mehera and Mani are vivid and full of the flavour of what it must have been like to be there. This already is one of my favorite Baba books and one I shall reread again and again."

STILL DANCING WITH LOVE

Further stories from Margaret Craske; many revealing and amusing of life with Meher Baba.
£6.50 (5)

SURRENDERING TO HIM

By Rhoda Adi Dubash 121 pages PB price £4.60 (4)
